

El-Phoenician

RESTAURANT

The Lebanese are renowned for their long and indulgent meals an optimum way to experience several tastes and aroma's in one meal!

The ideal way to experience our tradition is to order a few select dishes to share amongst each other.

Our chefs have taken the liberty to create several set banquets and platters for all functions, couples and larger numbers in attendance, which can be modified upon request to suit all events and budgets.

We have also designed several beverage and dessert additions for you to choose from-both as standard and premium packages.

Larger group bookings may also opt for a la karte dining, or create their own food and beverage banquets that we are more than happy to quote prices per guest

Below is an outline of what we offer as set platters and banquets, for a description of all the dishes you'll be served please refer to the a la karte menu on the main page
